

Answering the Call to Fight Homelessness & Hunger in America Opportunities for Volunteerism and Donations....

- Donate money. Because food pantries purchase food in mass quantities they can often purchase food less expensively than we can.
- Grow a vegetable garden and donate some of the vegetables.
- Donate clothing and winter coats.
- Plan a meal, purchase ingredients and prepare food for residents of a homeless shelter.
- Organize a book drive to create a small library at a homeless shelter or soup kitchen.
- Help serve food in a soup kitchen.
- Collect clothing, hygiene supplies, paper products and blankets to donate to a shelter.
- Make fleece tie blankets.
- Donate fast food gift cards.
- Collect items for infants and small children such as diapers, baby food and toys.
- Donate transit tickets, such as city bus tickets, to a homeless shelter.
- Collect art and school supplies for homeless children.
- Make sandwiches and bag lunches for the homeless.
- Conduct a hat and mitten drive.
- Volunteer to work at a homeless shelter. There is a lot of behind the scenes work such as administrative support, preparing food and distribution clothes.
- Donate furniture to a homeless shelter.
- Contact the agency that you wish to support and ask them what their specific needs are.

If you can't feed 100 people, then just feed one. ~ Mother Teresa
